Nine Out of Twelve Townships Instruct Delegates for the Circuit Attorney.

GETS 57 OF 69 DELEGATES.

In Some of the Townships the Reed Forces Offer No Opposition, Leaving the Field to St. Louis Man.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Mound City, Mo., March 29,-The Demo crats of Holt County hald their primarie to-day and nine out of twelve townships instructed their delegates to the County Convention, to be held at Bigelow Thurs-day, for Joseph W. Folk.

This gives Mr. Folk fifty-seven out of the sixty-nine delegates entitled to seats in the County Convention, a larger num-ber than was expected by the most ardent Folk supporters.

In Mound City no effort was made to oppose him and the Folk delegation of thirteen from Henton Township was elected unanimously, and only one Reed supporter appeared in Forest Township. The townships which instructed for Folk are Benton, Clay, Union, Lewis, Liberty, Forest, Rigelow and Minton.

The townships which instructed for Reed are: Hickory, Iducola, Forbes and Nodawsy. The Reed supporters are taking their defeat very philosophically, while the Folk admirers are feeling very jubilant. The County Convention meets at Bure-

The Reed supporters at this place were R. B. Bridgeman, Doctor J. T. Thatcher, appointees of Governor Deckery, and T. S. Hind. The Folk supporters were Chas. Zock, C. J. Hunt, banker, and R. G. Ruly, lumberman.

DELEGATES INSTRUCTED FOR POLK Gentry County Convention in Complete Control of His Followers.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Albany, Mo., March 29.-The Gentry County Convention to-day was under full control of the Folk forces and elected the following delegates to the Jefferson City convention:

E. O. Hammon, McFall; G. G. Strock, Albeny; M. S. Williams, Lone Star; James G. Ficklin, King City; and E. L. Wood, Clark. The delogates were instructed to vote for Folk.

There was a stormy time over the adoption of the resolutions, which were proposed by the majority committee. The original resolutions praised the efficient work of the Democratic party and commended all who had contributed by efficient service. The Reed forces undertook to amend by indorsing Governor Dockery personally. By a vote of $4 to $3 the convention declined to adopt the amendment. No instructions were given for any candidate except Folk, although the judicial delegates are known to be favorable to Judge Woodson for Supreme Judge.

The Joplin delegates are: W. P. Stapleton, A. C. Frisbis, Ambrose Jennings, J. B. Bohamon and J. E. Kessier.

Delegates to St. Joseph convention are: C. H. & Goodman, Thomas S. Gillespie, L. P. James, J. W. Peery and E. O. Lockwood.

If Filley Controls Republican Or ganization Walbridge Wants No Favors.

"The Old Man" Will Meet With

City Committee To Morrow Night and Help Prepare for Campaigu.

With the Republican party split from top to bottom in St. Louis, indications are good for a further severance of these ties which should bind a minority organnation together. Up to the last few weeks the Kerens and Akins factions have kept the party from getting together into any sort of shape.

Now promise is given that the injection of Filley into the organization will renew the old Walbridge fight against the "Old Man" of Chestnut street. With former Mayor Waibridge an avowed candidate for Vice President, subject to the action of the Chicago convention, his friends have announced that usless Filley is kept in the background he does sot intend to be emred in the game-not this year.

The Republican City Committee wil meet to-morrow night. Chauncey I. Fil-ley has accepted an invitation to "advise" with the committee as to the best method of organizing for the next campaign. It is not too much to say that the ma ority of the committee is heartily in fa Jority of the committee is heartily in favor of turning the local organization over to the turning the local organization over to the turning the local organization over to the turning merchant in the can get together some sort of a fighting force that will count for more than a party name in the election.

"The Old Man" in his acceptance of the invitation to "advise" with the committee has made it plain that he is against Federal patronage and its sponsors who try to control Republican conventions. He further insists that old emplifies should behave and all strive for harmony.

Taken all together, the Filley "platform," as his friends term the acceptance, is one against which no well-thinking Republican could take unbrase. He has fairly won the Republican City Committee with his view of the situation. Members of the City Committee who have gone without also since the days of Zieyanhein see in lim a star of hope—not a very big one to be suce, but visible, nevertheless.

WALBRIDGE WILL STEP OUT.

WALBRIDGE WILL STEP OUT. Against the acceptance, friends of Wal-oringe say nothing, against Filley they annot say too much. It is said that Mr.

cannot say too much. It is said that Mr. Walbridge has quiryly told more than one of his supporters for the vice presidency that if Filley is made the leader in St. Louis he does not intend to take part in the canonalen this year, either nationally or in the State.

This protest of Waibridge has made certain members of the Chy Committee stop and think. They realize that the enmity between the two men was so bitter during his incumbency that there is no hope of ever bridging the chasm, despite the alluring "platform" of Filley. With Walbridge utterly distrusting every pretense which Filley makes, there is no chance to get the two together accept in a fight.

Unless the friends of Walbridge choose chance to get the two together except in a fight.

Unless the friends of Walbridge choose to enter the fray and make it a winning one, there will be no fight. Mr. Walbridge Coes not propose to stoop from the candidacy for the vice presidency to a fight for control of the Republican City Committee. At present Filley has control, and his friends are daring Walbridge to try tots hand at the situation in St. Louis. Friends of Filley state further that they intend to take hold of St. Louis and control the delegation to the St. Joseph State Convention, where they will see that nothing goes to Walbridge. It is acknowledged that so far as South St. Louis is concerned, where Filley is strong, Walbridge is weakest. It is a fight which will probably result in the field being against Walbridge unless he voluntarily withdraws, which no one imagines he will do—not at least while "the Old Man" keeps his present excellent health and indomintable safrit.

Motions for a new trial and arrest of judgment were filed yesterday and were taken under advisement, but these legal moves are looked upon as formalities followed in such cases.

The defense has until April 1 to file a bill of exceptions, so that the case may be heard by the United States Court of Ap peals at St. Paul May 1. While neither Senator Burton nor his attorneys, Chester H. Krum and Frederick W. Lehmann, would discuss the case yesterday, it is the belief that it is their intention of getting the case in the higher court has soon as possible.

In support of the motion for arrest of judgment Mr. Krum contended that neither of the counts of the indictment state facts sufficient to constitute an offense against the United States; that there was no matter or thing pending in the Post-Office Department in which the United States was directly or indirectly interested; that the court which tried the case was without jurisdiction; that the privilege of freedom from arrest granted to the defendant during the ression of the Schate of the United States cannot be waived by an individual.

Senator Burton is still at the Southern Hotel and will remain in the city until the pending motions are disposed of and his bond on appeal is accepted by the court.

A healthy stomach is a blessing which is seldom rightly valued until it has been lost, and how careless many people are. serious trouble, and not until they are firmly in the grasp of some life-destroying diseases do they realize what a healthy stomach is.

The starring point for most diseases is the stomach, generally some little digestive derangement, yet as "great oaks from little acrons grow," so also do the diseases that kill begin in this insignificant way. To maintain health it is necessary to properly digest the food you eat. You have perhaps at different times, possibly every day, experienced after eating a sense of oppression, sour stomach, heartburn, head-sche, acidity, water rising, bad breath, fullness or bloated stomach. These are symptoms of Dyspepsia, commonly called indigestion, and if not corrected will lead to a breakdown of constitutional strength, a condition which invites diseases that physicians seem unable to ope with.
